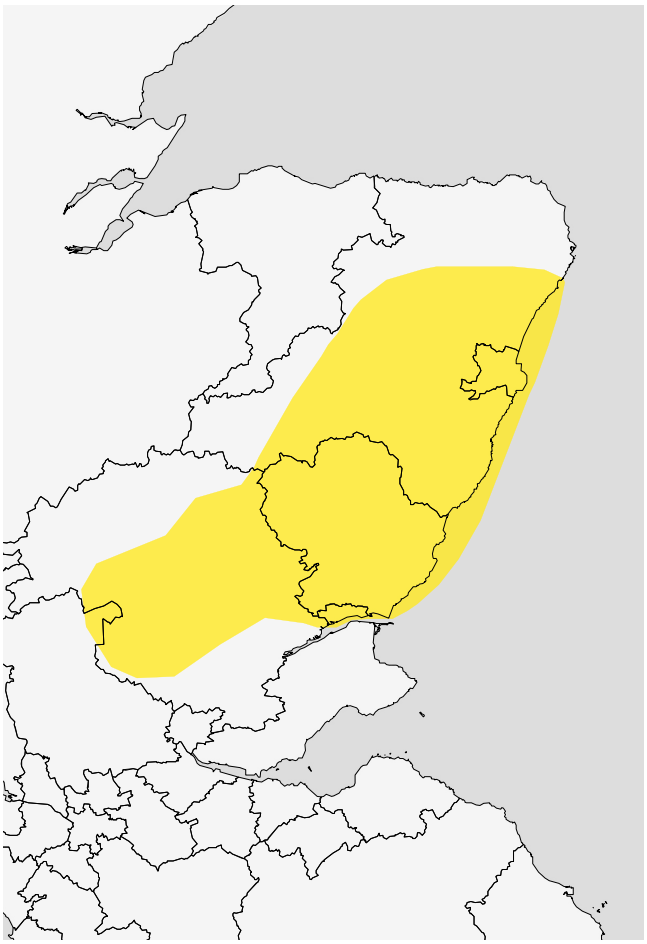
12:00 Thu 26 Oct 2023 and
12:00 Sun 29 Oct 2023



Persistent and occasionally heavy rain may lead to some flooding and transport disruption.

What to expect

- Spray and flooding leading to difficult driving conditions and some road closures, and may lead to delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- Homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Likely delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- There is a chance of fast-flowing or deep floodwater
- One or two smaller communities may be cut off by flooded roads
- Possible power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

Further rain is expected across eastern Scotland between late Thursday and early Sunday. The rain will be heavy in places, although possibly easing off across the north of the warning areas for a time later on Friday or early Saturday. Accumulations over this period will be widely around 30 to 50 mm across lower ground, but with 50 to 100 mm falling over higher ground, where there is the possibility of 120-160 mm in a few locations.
